

News Gathered During the Past Week

The Most Important Happenings of a Week Briefly
Told by Our Staff Correspondents

MIKE MATTERS.

Mrs. Jack Gandy is on the list this week.

Ben Bills delivered hogs to J. H. Redding Monday.

Miss Judith Dowell is home after stay of several weeks in Marce-

Henry Green of Washington, Iowa, visited his mother, Mrs. M. Green, the first of the week.

Henry Mitchell of Oklahoma sent several days visiting friends this neighborhood the first of the week.

Rev. Wright of Macon closed a two-weeks' meeting at this place at Friday night. No additions to the church.

Quite a large crowd from this neighborhood attended the dedication of Mt. Pleasant church, at Guthridge Mill, Sunday.

Jim Staples and family and Misses Mary and Maria Staples, of near Pee Dee, were guests at the R. A. Pierce home last Sunday.

There will be preaching at White Oak church the fourth Sunday and Sunday night in this month. Church meeting Saturday 2 o'clock preaching.

WESTVILLE WAIFS.

Mrs. Charles Blazer of Kansas are visiting her parents, Joe and wife.

L. O. Green was in this neighborhood visiting his parents Saturday and Sunday.

Robert Green disposed of some sheep Monday to Wolfe & Ridd of near Rothville.

We are glad to learn of the recovery of Mrs. Maidie Linebaugh, who has been very ill with typhoid fever.

"Grandma" Oldham is in very poor health at present, and there is hope of her ever being any better.

Geo. Hains of Marceline was in this neighborhood looking after farming interests the first of the week.

My Hedrick left Tuesday for Albuquerque, N. M., to spend the winter with his wife. We are sorry to learn that Mrs. Hedrick is no better.

Rothville Racket

A. L. Shoop made a trip to Marceline Tuesday.

Miss Lizzie Green visited Missie Black Monday.

Eugene Black of near Brunswick visited relatives here last week.

Quite a crowd from Rothville attended preaching in Mendon Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Hamilton of Brockfield visited relatives Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Segus Flippen and Mrs. B. Allen spent the day with Mr. Morton Allen Monday.

A taffy party was given at the home of Mrs. F. L. Dexter Monday evening. All who attended had a sweet and enjoyable time.

Pee Dee Prattle.

E. D. Edwards was here last week on business connected with collector's office.

Mrs. John Cloyd still continues to be a very sick woman. Her condition is very stubborn.

Mrs. N. B. Welch still continues to be poorly, at present being at home of Joe Phillips.

John D. Cowser and family are visitors at the home of his mother, Marion, Sunday.

W. Saunders filled his apartment here last Sunday, and will continue the meeting.

A large number of our people attended the dedication of the New church, Mount Pleasant, last Sunday.

J. G. McCloud departed last week for Salisbury with all his belongings, there to make his future home. Success to you, Jake.

The Adams chapel meeting is receiving its share of the attendance from this neighborhood and an excellent meeting is reported.

Wallace Hicks is hauling lumber preparatory to building a barn. It ought to be a house. It's strange old bachelors never think of building a house.

Quite a number of our people have made recent trips to the Missouri bottom for potatoes. It's nice to have an Egypt near by in a time of crop shortage.

Sam Laird left for his work as motorman in Kansas City last Wednesday after spending a two-weeks' vacation with friends and relatives in this vicinity.

John Girvin and wife have returned from their Colorado home and will remain a few weeks. Mr. Girvin will dispose of his property here and will make Colorado his permanent home since the health of himself and family is much better there.

Cecil Wayland, county tax collector, was here two days last week, but owing to the fact of a limited notice of his coming, many of our tax-payers failed to see him. A little notice through the county papers would have been quite an accommodation to the people, since we live so far from the capital.

The hallowe'en parties were very mild in this burg. Somebody brought a log to town and evidently thought Will Collet's store was a sawmill and unloaded the log on his porch. Elder Brooks came to town that evening and had the pleasure of riding home bareback for while he was in one of the stores, his saddle went to roost in a tree and refused to come down until next morning.

S. S. Kelso returned home Wednesday evening very much refreshed after a three-weeks' sight-seeing expedition in the East. He visited the Jamestown exposition, the national capital and other places of interest, including some of his relatives in Pennsylvania. He reports an interesting trip. Among other things says that there is a beautiful apple crop in Southeast Pennsylvania and that apples are being fed to the hogs and are selling at from 5 to 25 cents per bushel.

Salisbury Squibblings.

Ed Schleister carries his hand in a sling as the result of a boil.

Miss Minnie Clarkson of Glasgow visited homefolks Sunday.

Will Jackson has been having a serious time with his crippled leg.

Andy Knaus, a thirty colored man, is building a neat cottage residence on West Third street.

The Salisbury high school carried off all the basket-ball honors in a contest with Moberly here Saturday, both boys and girls.

We learn that Will Fox was badly cut with a knife Saturday night by some one in a row, but we have been unable to get full particulars.

Mrs. Myrtle Craven has rented the Thomas residence on West Third street, and will keep house there until she can get possession of her own home.

Work on the Dickson hotel building is progressing rapidly, the walls now being above the second story. When completed, this will add much to the beauty and convenience of that popular hostelry.

Word comes from Moberly that Miss Leila Bodine, formerly of this place, was married last evening to William Newkirk of St. Joseph, at the home of her father in the latter city.

We regret to announce the death of Charles Houston, who passed away, seven miles north of this here, Sunday morning at 1 o'clock, aged about 48 years. Deceased was twice married, his first wife being a Miss Cox, and his last a Miss Tillerson, who survives him. He leaves a wife and several children and many friends and relatives to mourn his death.

W. H. Brummall, one of our oldest citizens, died at the home of his nephew, Robert Brummall, Tuesday night, aged 86 years and some months. Deceased was never married and for many years had lived on his farm, east of town, but a few days ago, finding his health was failing, he moved into town where he died. He left a will by which he leaves his property to the children of his nieces and nephews. Funeral services took place yesterday from the C. P. church to the City cemetery.

Whitham Whiffs.

OUR SUITS TALK!

HEY tell the world just what you want it to know about you. If you have any pride about your appearance, you should form the habit of coming here for your clothes. We avoid the cheap sort of clothing, because it's bad for you and it would be very bad for our store. We have choice Fall Suits, the right sort, at prices ranging from $12.50 to $25.00

The fall styles are conservative and attractive, neat mixtures and new colorings; coats fitting to the form and of medium length; trousers easy, shapely and graceful. Come in and see what's new and talk over the Fall Suit proposition with us. We are always pleased to show you.

AGEE BROS., Keytesville, Mo

Jas. M. Halley of Kansas City came down the first of the week.

Thanks to Mrs. Hugo Bartz, Sr., for a beautiful bouquet of chrysanthemums.

The Criminal Calendar.

Luther Chrisman, charged with disturbing the peace of Theresa Leneritz, was tried by a jury in Justice M. J. Lain's court in Bee Branch township Friday. The defendant proved an alibi and the jury returned a verdict of "not guilty."

Groceries of all kinds at P. J. Halley's.

Calendars.

The COURIER has received 500 very handsome calendars, a fruit design, for 1908, which we will give away to the first 500 persons who renew their subscription or who become new subscribers to the COURIER. These calendars are an excellent production of the art of fancy job printing and are particularly appropriate for a dining-room.

Notice.

My bills for my fall purchases are now falling due and I am needing money. There are a great many persons who have owed me on their accounts for several months. Please come in and settle at once. Unless you respond promptly I shall be compelled to put your accounts into the hands of an attorney for collection. This means you.

Yours Truly,
H. M. SIGLOCH.
